

SHACKLETON'S WAY

LEADERSHIP LESSONS FROM THE GREAT ANTARCTIC EXPLORER

www.LeadershipLives.com

PART 1 / INTRODUCTION

Before we focus on Shackleton and leadership, please consider one question.

Who do you know – personally - that you consider a great leader? A parent, grandparent, a teacher, a friend, boss or coach?

What is it about that person that you admire?

48.5

As you think about this great leader, you will find yourself zeroing in on the four practices of great leaders.

THE 4 PRACTICES OF GREAT LEADERS

- LEADING BY EXAMPLE
- COMMUNICATING EFFECTIVELY
- KEEPING UP MORALE
- MAINTAINING A POSITIVE ATTITUDE

In the next section, we'll look at how Shackleton developed strong leadership skills.